HISTORICAL SCARAB SEALS FROM THE ART INSTITUTE COLLECTION, CHICAGO

BY GARRETT CHATFIELD PIER
Chicago

By the term "historical" I mean seals having names of royal personages, nobles, or others connected with the court or government.

I have endeavored to maintain a chronological order throughout. These seals are chosen from a collection of nearly 700 bought by the Art Institute in 1894 from the Reverend Chauncey Murch, an American missionary to Egypt. The original size is preserved in the plates.
